

Congleton RFC - Head Coach

Congleton RUFC is seeking to appoint a player / coach. The club plays in the South Cheshire league at level 8 of national standard having been promoted last season and we are looking for someone to help take us forward to help develop our existing and new players.

Inheriting a talented squad and supported by two other qualified coaches, you will be responsible for driving the team's on and off-field performance as we aim to be in the promotion mix for next season.

The club is based in Congleton, Cheshire and training is currently Tuesday and Thursday. We are a club steeped in history, but are currently rebuilding to create a strong community club and looking to make strides forward both on and off the field. We are looking for a senior head coach to give leadership and direction to the playing group and help the progress of the junior coaches who will be working with you. Having experience of playing rugby at first team level will be an advantage.

Responsibilities:

To coach at two training sessions per week to senior players.

Lead on the playing structure and to integrate a style of play.

To prepare the team for, and attend, match days.

To have key input in team selection with support from Team Captains.

Player development at all senior age groups.

Assist in developing a long term structure for the club including recruitment ideas for all ages.

Qualifications:

Preferably qualified to, or working towards, RFU Level 2 standard although all applications will be considered.

Benefits:

The opportunity to gain coaching experience with mentoring from an England Rugby Coach Educator.

Develop coaching skills working within the club.

Financial support towards relevant CPD opportunities to develop coaching skills. To be negotiated, depending upon coaching and playing experience.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

This could be an ideal opportunity for someone wishing to embark on a coaching career, with a progressive and friendly club where there will be a high degree of support. To apply for this position, please email your Rugby CV to our Chair of Rugby; treasurer@congletonruffc.co.uk
